MAYOR D. A. YEISER REFUSED TO ATTACH HIS NAME TO PAPER

Declined to Concur in the General Council's Police Resolution.

The Mayor Openly Favors Adding $7,020 a Year to the Burden of the Taxpayers.

The appended resolution is one adopted last night by the board of aldermen and signed by the president of the two branches of Paducah's legislative boards, protesting to the state senate against the passage of the Head police bill, which is designed to compel the city of Paducah to support more patrolmen than are believed to be necessary.

It was asked that Mayor D. A. Yeiser also sign the resolution, as mayor of the city, but he declined to do so. He has been personally in favor of the bill all the time, but it was thought that as chief executive of the city, he would sign it as a courtesy to the city's representatives, the members of the general council, who are the real authorities to express the city's views on the subjects.

It has been reported that the mayor wrote to Frankfort in his official capacity, endorsing the bill, which if true would have been entirely unauthorized, as he does not represent the sentiment that prevails in Paducah, but when asked about it today, the mayor denied that he had written endorsing the bill officially.

The resolution, however, is as follows:

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 21, 1906.
To the Representatives of McCracken County, in the Kentucky Legislature, Frankfort, Ky.

Dear Sirs:
The attention of the general council of Paducah has been directed to a bill which has been introduced in and passed by the lower house, fixing the maximum number of policemen to be employed by any city of the second class in this commonwealth.

We feel we would be remiss in our duty as representatives of the people of Paducah, were we to permit such a measure to be enacted without entering a protest in the name of the people and calling your attention to the injustice that would ensue from the enactment of such a measure, as it would apply to the City of Paducah alone at this time, and in view of the reasons which we believe prompted its introduction, we ask in the interests of our city and other second class cities which may in the future be added, that you examine this measure exhaustively before arriving at a decision to impose such a hardship upon the citizens of Paducah.

When the present general council was inducted into office, after a careful investigation of conditions connected with the proper policing of the city, it was the unanimous belief of that body, that a more economical administration of that department of the city might be effected without depriving the citizens of the protection to which they were entitled.

In the apportionments for the coming year, the general council fixed the amount for police purposes with a view of reducing the force to a number actually demanded by existing conditions and eliminating only that portion that appeared, in the judgment of that body, to be extravagant and wasteful.

A short time since, committees from every second class city in this commonwealth met in the city of Lexington, Kentucky, to recommend such measures as they deemed expedient and wise, but the measure herein referred to, was not included in the list of recommendations made by cities of that class.

It is the belief of the general council of the City of Paducah that this act would be arbitrary and in direct opposition to free government and home rule. That body believes the city most concerned has a clearer conception of the necessities of its immediate municipality than do people from the state at large.

It is the judgment of that body that the proposed act would burden the people with an unnecessary expenditure of public funds from which no adequate returns would result. It is the belief of that body that cities of the second class and all other classes, should have the right to legislate for their own self-government, which right we believe the constitution of the state and their charters clearly intend they shall have.

We assert that the general council of Paducah is composed of representative business men, recently elected by the people and that said council has the welfare of the city and its people at heart to the fullest extent and will at all times protect them personally and financially to the best of its ability, and that said general council enjoys the complete confidence of the people of Paducah, and it assumes that all other second class cities are equally protected and guarded by their elected representatives.

Our city has recently been placed in the second class, and has not the population of either of the other cities of the same class in the state, and therefore its requirements for police protection are different from those cities.

Therefore, the general council of Paducah respectfully requests that the senate does not concur in the action of the lower house in passing the bill referred to above.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed,) O. B. STARKS,
President Board of Aldermen.
(Signed,) G. O. M'BROOM,
President Board of Councilmen.

When the aldermanic board asked the mayor last night to sign the above resolution first, he refused.

"I am in favor of the police bill," he said today. "I think it is all right. It has been said I was the author of the bill, but I was not. It was drawn, and inspired by members of the local board of police commissioners, and friends of the force it is true. I shall say this: I don't think the commissioners will increase the force above the present number—they will be conservative. We need the present number of men and soon shall need more, to properly police the city. It is all very well to talk about cutting down expenses, but we get censured if we don't keep order in the city, and we certainly cannot do it with a small force."

The mayor overlooks the fact, however, that if the Head bill passes, it will compel the city to have at least thirty patrolmen, no matter whether the police board intends to increase the regular number or not. The present force consists of 20 regular patrolmen, one extra, and a chief, captain and lieutenant,—24 in all. No matter if the commissioners are willing for this force to remain as it is, 24 men, they would have to put on thirty men under the Head bill in addition to a chief, captain and lieutenant.

This bill would make the police force of Paducah consists of 33 men, and increase the number of patrolmen about 9, thus making the additional cost to the taxpayers of Paducah, at $65 a month, $7,020 a year.

This extra $7,020 a year is what the general council is trying to save the taxpayers, and to save which the resolution was adopted last night.

The mayor of Paducah favors adding this additional $7,020 on the taxpayers, and declined to sign the resolution.

Killed by Runaway Team.

Henry Brenningmeyer, of the Benton precinct, near Metropolis, Ill., was fatally hurt in a runaway a few days ago. His team was dragging a log, and in some way he fell and was run over by both team and log. He was about 55 years old and leaves a large family.

Traveling Auditor Here.

A. Carlson, traveling auditor of the Western Union Telegraph company, was in the city yesterday and checked up Manager Elmore, of the local office. He found everything in tip top shape, and his work was completed in about three hours.

CRUSHED BY LOG.

Horrible Death of a Woman Near Danville, Ky.

Danville, Ky., Feb. 23.—Mrs. Alice Baker, wife of a prominent farmer, was crushed to death by a huge log rolling off the wagon and passing over her body. She was watching her husband and other men load timber when the accident occurred.

Court House Damaged By Dynamite.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 23.—An attempt was made last evening to wreck the Floyd county court house with dynamite. Circuit Judge Moffett is presiding. The explosion tore a hole in the building in the rear of the judge's bench. The judge had granted bail to Fred Hoback, an accused murderer, and it is thought this had something to do with the attempt to wreck the court house.

LIGHT COMMITTEE MAY MAKE REPORT

Contract Will Probably Be Made for 75 Lights.

The City Will Furnish the Remainder, Thus Showing the People What's What.

THE PRICE IS SATISFACTORY

The aldermanic light committee will probably bring in a report on the street car company's proposition for lighting the streets at the aldermen meeting tonight.

The company has made another proposition to the committee by which it proposes to furnish 75 lights to the city at a satisfactory price, the city to supply the balance it needs.

The council boards, it is said, are in favor of the proposition, as in this way they will have an opportunity to compare the two services,—the city's and the street car company's after a year's trial.

A majority of the two boards was opposed to the proposition of the company's to take over the city plant for ten years and furnish all the lights, notwithstanding the fact that the proposition meant a big saving to the city,—about $7,000 a year, in fact.

The proposition is for the city to continue to furnish 125 of the present lights and the company 40, and the company will furnish the additional lights required which at present would be 35, making a total of 200.

The members of the council deem the proposition made, the details of which were not given out, as the best one yet offered, and in all probabilities it will be accepted.

The price of the lights to the city will be $62.50, the same price quoted on the 200 light proposition.

Very Much Like Spring.

The temperature the past several days has been very mild and from all appearances spring is here. The highest yesterday was 67. Drummers coming from the south claim that the flowers are all blooming as far up as Memphis, the same as during the summer time.

Getting the Sawmill Ready.

The Mergenthaler-Horton Basket Co. is installing machinery in the Farley plant in Mechanicsburg, which it has leased for a term of years, for a saw mill, and it will be in operation in a few weeks employing 25 to 30 men.

DEATHS OF A DAY OF LOCAL INTEREST

Uncle of the Messrs Katterjohn Dies in Indiana.

Funeral of the Late Mrs. Ferguson Held Today—Mrs. T. B. Rouse's Funeral.

DR. COYLE REPORTED DEAD

Mr. Herman Katterjohn has gone to Boonville, Ind., to attend the funeral of his uncle, whose death is thus given in a dispatch:

Boonville, Ind., Feb. 21.—John F. Katterjohn, aged 62, and one of Boonville's wealthiest citizens, died here at his home this morning at 3 o'clock from an attack of asthma and muscular rheumatism. He had been sick for some time and took to his bed two weeks ago. He is a veteran of the civil war.

He leaves many relatives and of his family two sons and one daughter, and a wife survive. Charles M. Katterjohn, manager of the Cumberland Telephone company at Evansville is one of the sons and Quincy Katterjohn of Boonville, part owner of the Katterjohn roller mills, is the other son. His only daughter is Mrs. Armond Tweedy of Boonville. He has many relatives in Dubois county and at Holland, Ind., his birthplace. He also has relatives in Henderson, Paducah and Owensboro, Ky.

Mr. Katterjohn was regarded as one of the best milling men in Indiana, having been in that business for over forty-five years.

He was at the time of his death vice-president of the Boonville People's bank, a stockholder in the Old National Bank of Evansville, and also in the State Bank at Indianapolis. He was an ex-auditor of Warrick county and was a staunch republican, having held different positions.

The funeral will be held Feb. 23, the burial to take place at Maple Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Rouse's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. T. B. Rouse, who died yesterday afternoon at her home in Lone Oak from pneumonia, took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the church, burial at Mt. Kenton. Mrs. Rouse was wife of the Rev. T. B. Rouse, the well-known Baptist minister at Lone Oak, and was 53 years old. She leaves besides her husband six children, as follows: Misses Lillie, Annie, Mary Rouse, Mrs. Hattie Allen and Messrs. Roy and Willie Rouse. The deceased was a sister-in-law of Messrs. George Rouse, the local grocer, and Professor Albert M. Rouse, business manager of the Draughton business college here.

Mrs. Ferguson's Funeral.

The remains of the late Mrs. Zilpha Ferguson were brought to the city at 7 o'clock last night from La Center, Ballard county, where she died the night before from burns received over a week ago. They were taken to the residence of Mr. S. C. Vaughan, at Fifth and Harrison streets, and this morning at 10 o'clock the funeral services were conducted at the First Christian church, the Rev. B. W. Bass officiating. The burial was at Oak Grove. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Eli Guthrie, W. F. Paxton, James A. Rudy, Van O. Burnett, J. Henry Smith and J. K. Bondurant.

Died at Fulton.

Mrs. Camille McClain, wife of A. C. McClain, died at Fulton. The deceased was formerly Miss Camille Dublin, of Graves county. Her husband is the son of J. A. McClain and holds a responsible position in the I. C. freight depot at Fulton.

Reported Death in West.

It has been reported for several days past that Dr. J. E. Coyle, formerly of Paducah, died somewhere in Oklahoma, where he went when he left Paducah two or three years ago, but the report cannot be confirmed. Some man from the west was the first to bring the information, and he has left the city. The report has spread among the doctor's many friends, and when a Sun reporter attempted to trace it to its source, found that it originated from what was said in a barber shop "Daddy" Root, who has been in the west for two or three years, will be here in a day or two, and it is expected to ascertain from him whether or not Dr. Coyle is really dead.

"BLUEBEARD" HOCH PAID THE PENALTY

Hanged at Chicago This Afternoon at 1:34 O'clock.

Desperate Legal Battle Waged to Save Him Today—Had Officers Guessing.

HOCH CHEERFUL TO THE LAST

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 23.—A desperate legal struggle was waged to save Johann Hoch, the alleged bigamist and wife poisoner, from the gallows. Shortly before the time set for the execution, Attorney Comerford applied for a writ of habeas corpus, which was refused by Judge Landis.

When Hoch heard this he said he would resist execution by physical force.

Comerford then filed a petition in the United States court asking interference on the ground that the fourteenth amendment to the constitution was violated in sentencing Hoch. The ground was that Hoch was arrested in New York on a charge of bigamy and brought to Chicago and tried for murder.

The execution was delayed pending the legal struggle. Just as preparations for reading the death warrant were completed, Attorney Comerford appeared on the scene waiving an appeal bond, duly signed and demanding a further stay of execution.

The appeal was from the decision of Judge Landis on denying the writ of habeas corpus. Comerford, Deputy Peters and Jailer Whitman immediately went into conference. In the meantime Hoch was enjoying a hearty dinner unconcerned and appeared to enjoy every morsel.

Whitman and Peters found themselves in such a quandary that they sent for State's Attorney Helly and his assistants.

Later the death march commenced and he reached the gallows at 1:31. Hoch made a speech saying he was innocent and asking forgiveness for his executioners. The drop was sprung at 1:34.

Hoch arose at 6:50 this morning and as he jumped out of bed remarked: "This is a fine day for February; just like the first day of spring." When asked how he felt he replied, "Fine."

Hoch spent almost an hour eating a hearty breakfast. After breakfast he lighted a cigar and again asserted that he would not hang, as he was innocent.

Johann Hoch gained international notoriety through his arrest and prosecution for the death of Mrs. Marie Welker-Hoch, a German-American widow of Chicago, who died shortly after he married her. A post-mortem revealed the fact that arsenic was in the blood, and organs of the woman. It was learned that Hoch carried a fountain pen which contained arsenic. He had made a practice of marrying widows to secure their money. Many of the women died a few weeks after their marriage to him. He was suspected of having poisoned his victims.

After the death of Mrs. Welker-Hoch the bigamist married her sister, Mrs. Amelia Fischer, another widow, who had a bank account. Hoch robbed his first wife, and she caused his undoing. He was arrested in New York, and being brought back to Chicago was convicted on Mrs. Fischer's testimony.

After Hoch had been sentenced to be executed Mrs. Fischer-Hoch changed her desires to revenge herself. In order to save him she swore that she had perjured herself during the trial. She has threatened to kill herself if Hoch is hanged.

Hoch was originally sentenced to be executed August 25, 1905. Stays were obtained, and a writ of superseas delayed the execution until the supreme court passed upon, and denied it. Hoch then applied to the governor and the pardon board for clemency but this was denied. Although Hoch always claimed that he was innocent, and would never hang, he paid his penalty for the crime in the Cook county jail today.

Gardner Leases Another Building.

F. N. Gardner & Co. have leased the house now occupied by the Paducah Furniture company, at 116 and 118 South Third street, and will obtain possession in sixty days. The building will be lengthened to the full depth of the lot, about 30 feet additional, and remodeled in many details.

REVENUE BILL

Arguments Are Being Made This Afternoon.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 23.—The revenue bill was called in the house and is now being discussed section by section. In the senate Jack Chinn offered a substitute for the county unit bill to make the cities of the first five class cities in a unit by themselves, the rest of the state to be another unit. Indications are that the original of the amended bill will be voted on this afternoon.

$30,000 BLAZE.

Destroys Opera House at Windfall, Indiana.

Windfall, Ind., Feb. 23.—Fire last night destroyed the opera house, Knights of Pythias lodge room and four other buildings in the business districts. Loss estimated at $30,000.

OFFICIALS WANT THIS BILL TO PASS

Gives Second Class Cities Right to Fix Saloon License.

The Present Charter Does Not Allow It to Be Fixed at Over $150 a Year.

THE LOCAL OFFICIALS APPROVE

TO FIX SALOON LICENSES.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 23.—Among the seven new bills introduced in the house this morning was one introduced by Representative Head, allowing second class cities to fix the liquor license, and striking out the present maximum of $150, and another by Representative Blair, to give to second class cities complete control in the matter of laying out new streets in the suburbs.

The above bill meets with the hearty approval of local city officials.—Mayor Yeiser, Chief of Police Collins, and all of the members of the general council, and they hope for its passage.

Under the bill, the council would have the privilege of fixing the saloon licenses at any figure it wanted. There is a strong sentiment among the local officials to place the license at $250 to $300, and in a few years to increase it still more.

Surveyor of Customs at Paducah Probably Not Lose His Job, Nor

Washington, D. C., Feb. 23.—A special to the Courier-Journal says: "Representative James, of Kentucky, made Chairman Payne, of the ways and means committee, appear ridiculous on the floor of the house today. Mr. Payne has gone daffy on his bill to relieve certain districts and giving the power to the president, which means the treasury official is to effect the reform."

"The entire saving to the government would only amount to about $100,000 per annum, and many useful and convenient ports to the people would be abolished, among the number Paducah, Ky."

Arrangements are Being Made for the G. A. R. and Confederate Reunions

Washington, Feb. 23.—In general orders Commander-in-Chief Tanner, of the G. A. R., outlined the program for the national encampment, which convenes at Minneapolis on August 13. He says:

"On the evening of Tuesday, August 14, there will be a semi-official meeting to receive addresses from state and city officials."

"The annual parade, in connection with the national encampment, will be on Wednesday, August 15, and will be composed exclusively of Grand Army comrades. The parade will not be more than two miles in length."

"The business sessions of the encampment will begin on Thursday, August 16."

TO BE BANNER YEAR FOR NEW BUILDINGS

Architects Say a Big Rush is in Prospect.

Reported a Number of Local Unions Will Ask For More Concessions This Year.

THE MATTER STILL IN DOUBT.

There is more substantial building construction under consideration and in contemplation for this spring than ever before in the history of the city, and this year promises to be a banner year in all lines.

All of the architects report a big supply of work on hand, more than ever before, and the contractors are now bidding on a great number of plans. Among the buildings contemplated are a number of handsome residences, office and store buildings and a number of flats and apartment houses.

"Construction work costs about 33 1-3 per cent more than it did a few years ago," said an architect today, and this may cut quite a figure in the proposed buildings. Then, too, there is some concern about what the labor unions will do this year. Most contracts with the unions expire April 1st and it is reported there will be demands from some of them for increased wages, and this will have its bearing on any new work."

E. D. Hannan, the plumber, has taken time by the forelock and already reached an agreement with his men for the new year. The plumbers' agreement with their men expires April 1st, and the men asked for an increase from the present scale, $3.50 a day for eight hour day, to $4 for the same hour day, and the agreement has been signed. The plumbers, however, have agreed not to affiliate with any other local unions and this means the plumbers can work in event of any strikes by any of the other unions.

New Orleans, Feb. 23.—The data for the Confederate reunion, to be held here April 25, 26 and 27, have not been changed. As the result of a meeting of the local committee, the following was given out today:

"The attention of the committee being called to a conflict of dates between those of the reunion and the date of memorial day in certain states, it was moved and carried that the matter be referred to Gen. Stephen D. Lee, with the statement that it was the sense of the committee that it is impracticable at this late day to change the date of the reunion."

THE KITTIE LEAGUE SENDS OUT GOOD 'UNS

Some of the Best in the Business Graduated in it.

Evansville Sporting Writer Shows Where Former Kitty Players Are to Be This Season.

MANY VERY FAMILIAR NAMES.

The Kitty league is sending out a goodly number of players to the larger leagues this season, says Wallace C. Dyer, in the Evansville Courier. Among them are several Evansville productions who had their first professional experience in the "little league over the river" as local people love to refer to the organization which has fought its way through three turbulent seasons, managed to establish a reputation for long inning games, developing good material and changing its base of operation with the coming of each spring.

It is not untrue that the Kitty like the animal from which it takes its name, is supposed to have nine lives. They have a habit of making both ends meet by putting on side attractions in the way of umpire fights and stormy business sessions in the Kitty. These side attractions keep the interest up during the dog days and each season finds a bunch of new towns in the makeup of the league, the new blood taking the place of the towns which went to the bad financially the previous year.

But that is wandering off the subject. The whereabouts of some of the stars of the many lived league was the original excuse for this. The fact that Percy Wilder of this city will go to Dubuque in the Three Eye this year and Frank Bittroff and Fox Morris also of Evansville, have signed with Decatur is of interest.

Bittroff finished the season with Decatur last season, pitching good ball. He with Wilder started his career at Cairo, being taken there by Lou Rutledge, also of Evansville. Both are coming twirlers, young, steady, reliable chaps with lots of ambition. Morris played at Hopkinsville until the team there was dropped last summer and then came here for a try out. He is fast, hits well and a good infielder.

One Kitten a Manager.

Probably the biggest jump any of the Kitty players, have made is that by Patty McAndrews, a genial and fast little Tad who played short for Hopkinsville and Princeton until the Kitty died for the last time last summer. He is to manage the Keokuk team in the Iowa state league this year and thinks he can put in a pennant winner. Pat is a left-handed hitter, almost as fast on his feet as Artie Long, the star of the K. I. T. who closed the season last summer with Evansville, and has a good level head. Long has signed with Seattle, Wash., and has promised McAndrews that if he does not stick it out on the coast he will join him at Keokuk. McAndrews also wants Morris but both these men will probably hold down their jobs. Patty will take Lou Sullinger, the star outfielder who was with Hopkinsville for a time to Iowa with him. He is looking for fast left-handed hitters and will sign "Deacon" Bell, the minister's son who was with Cairo, Henderson and Princeton during the storm ridden year of 1905.

McAndrews is a traveling salesman during the winter months and sells sawmill supplies. He was in Evansville Friday night and while here received a telegram stating that his terms had been accepted by the Keokuk club owners.

Frank Brady, the hard hitting outfielder with Hopkinsville last season and an Evansville boy who wore a uniform for Ryan a few days last summer has signed with Jacksonville in the new Kitty. Charles Bomar of Hopkinsville last year has signed with Decatur, Ill. Pat Downing, the Princeton catcher has signed with Nashville in the Southern league, Red Bohanon with Evansville three years ago and Paducah last season will also wear a Nashville uniform. Myers, Hopkinsville's first baseman, is to have a try-out with Louisville. Ned Crowder, Henderson's shortstop, is going to Macon, Ga., in the South Atlantic and C. C. Carnes who pitched for Princeton, will be given a trial with Louisville.

HOSPITALS CROWDED

MAJORITY OF PATIENTS WOMEN

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Saves Many From This Sad and Costly Experience.

It is a sad but certain fact that every year brings an increase in the number of operations performed upon women in our hospitals. More than three-fourths of the patients lying on those snow-white beds are women and girls who are awaiting or recovering from operations made necessary by neglect.

Every one of these patients had plenty of warning in that bearing down feeling, pain at the left or right of the abdomen, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, pelvic catarrh, dizziness, flatulency, displacements or irregularities. All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female organs, and if not heeded the trouble may make headway until the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation, and a lifetime of impaired usefulness at best, while in many cases the results are fatal.

Miss Luella Adams, of Seattle, Wash., writes:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"About two years ago I was a great sufferer from a severe female trouble, pains and headaches. The doctor prescribed for me and I had a tumor removed. Fortunately, I underwent an operation if I wanted to get well. I felt that this was my death warrant, but I spent hundreds of dollars for medical help, but the doctor kept growing. Fortunately, I began to improve in health, and I was entirely cured, the tumor disappearing entirely, without an operation. I wish every suffering woman would try this great preparation."

Just as surely as Miss Adams was cured of the troubles enumerated in her letter, just so surely will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure other women who suffer from female troubles, inflammation, kidney troubles, nervous excitability or nervous prostration.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all young women who are ill to write her for free advice. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Grover Land, Paducah's big catcher who closed the year with Toledo is going back to that place.

Patent Brings Fortune.

Bobby Barlow, outfielder with Hopkinsville and Princeton in 1905, has struck a great big piece of luck and has too much money to play baseball. While in Paducah last summer a little crippled boy told him of how he had patented a car step. The boy had no money with which to push his patent and Barlow put $150, his season's savings, into the scheme. During the winter they sold the patent for $20,000 and Barlow will take his half of the money to Texas and start a mercantile business.

The new Kitty league has lost the "Maurice Jags" Farnbaker of old. They didn't pay Farnbaker for acting as secretary, fixer, general manager, main squeeze, major domo, etc., etc., last summer and he refused to be elected this year. He will devote his time to newspaper work in Cairo in the future having decided that he will get more ham and eggs, less fame and fewer knocks from that job than any position the league could offer him. But it is doubtful whether the league can exist for one summer without "Hij's Jaglets" because he was the man who always bobbed up with a new brand of elixir of life when the Kitty became ill and to his wise old baseball head is due the fact the league has managed to get through three seasons and start on its fourth. He found the new towns this year, helped complete the organization and then turned the managerial reins over to C. C. Gosnell of Vincennes, who is president, secretary and general manager. Mr. Gosnell, a good baseball man himself, will doubtless lead the Cairo newspaper man can help him before the fourth pennant race in the Kitty is a matter of history.

Brockett, the former Cairo pitcher, has been released by the Cleveland American league club to Buffalo, New York.

The L. A. L's. have received their first challenge for this season, from the semi-professionals of Mound City, Ill., who want a game there the second Sunday in May. The L. A. L's. are organizing now for the season and will give Mound City a game.

"Pipe" Morgan, the speed wonder of the Henderson team before it slid off the Kitty, will continue to be a member of the Kitty family during the coming summer, he having signed a contract to twirl for the Charleston-Mattoon aggregation. Morgan, barring his wildness, has always been a success in the Kitty up to the close of last season, when he joined Cairo. While with that team he was not at all successful, but this was probably due to the poor timber he had behind him. Morgan is a gentlemanly little player and well liked in the league—Vincennes Capital.

The report being flashed over the Kitty league that George Wilkinson, first baseman of the Champs, is attempting to become manager of the Mattoon team, is absolutely without foundation. Wilk will be found on the initial sack for the Alices when the season opens. His brother, "Happy Jack," was the applicant referred to—Vincennes Capital.

A baseball editor with religious tendencies originates the following: "The devil was the first catcher. He coached Eve when she stole first. Adam stole second. When Isaac met Rebecca at the well she was walking with a pitcher. Sampson struck out a good many times when he beat the Philistines. Cain made a base hit when he slew Able. Moses made the first run when he slew the Egyptians. The prodigal son made a home run. David was a long distance thrower. And Moses shut out the Egyptians at the Red Sea. The game was called when the flood came on account of wet grounds."

Pitcher Weakley and Outfielder McGill of last season's Princeton have written asking berths with the Alices in 1906. Although both are good men there is no room for them on that team and the Hyphens would do well to try them out. * * * Sammy Van Sickle, of Aurora, Ind., has signed to catch with the Danville team of the Kitty league. Van Sickle caught for the Lebanon, Ind., team last season. He finished the season with a batting average of .329. He recently established a record for himself in the ring by knocking out Harry Neal in 38 seconds, of what was to have been a fifteen-round contest. * * * Eddie Carter, the crack little shortstop, who has a national reputation among semi-professionals, returned to his home in Rushville, Ind., from Riverside, Cal., and has signed to play shortstop with the Cairo team. He was given a trial by Columbus, O. league team last season, but owing to ill health, did not go on the diamond during the season. It was he who played such phenomenal ball in Rushville against the Cincinnati Reds in 1904, and won the admiration of Kelley and others of the team.—Mattoon Morning Star.

It is rumored that other towns have applied the cognomen of "Grape Creekers" to the locals. Others say it should be "Old Soldiers," but as the season opens it will probably simmer down to "Vets."—Danville Democrat.

Vincennes is now on the "uncertain" bench. A number of last year's players may not appear this season and the newspapers of that city are wondering what Kolb will do as he has but one pitcher that will likely make good; he has not yet captured a catcher or second baseman. Meanwhile Cairo is getting together a warm bunch of players and is going to make some of the Kitty teams look like thirty cents before the season is over. * * * Mattison, last season's catcher for Vincennes, is demanding a national league salary for this season, and says he will not join the team unless it is forthcoming.—Princeton, Ind., Democrat.

Arizona Company Here.

The Arizona company passed through Paducah this morning en route to Morganfield, Ky.

The company played at Cairo last night and is one of the biggest companies of its kind on the road. A portion of the company came through this morning on the Cairo accommodation train, and the remainder passed through at noon coming via Fulton on the fast train. The company will not play Paducah this season.

Travel in the "Dixie."

The Donnelly-Hatfield minstrels arrived in Paducah this morning from the south. The company is one of the largest and best on the road and travels in its private car "Dixie." This is the company Mr. Charlie Carney started out with early in the season, but on account of losing his voice had to resign from the singing corps. He imitates the female voice and while trying to sustain a high-tone injured his vocal cords. He visited the company in its car this morning.

Mildred Holland.

The management of The Kentucky takes pleasure in announcing the appearance of the favorite emotional actress, Mildred Holland, on the evening of Tuesday, Feb. 27. On this occasion Miss Holland will present her remarkably strong and beautiful impersonation of "Angela" in Carina Jordan's romantic drama, "The Lily and the Prince," which is one of the most interesting romantic dramas ever staged. It is a play of intense high lights and delicate

BOARD ADJOURNED

ALDERMEN DID LITTLE AT LAST NIGHT'S SESSION.

Supt. Egan, of the I. C., Reports That Trains Will Be Stopped at Broadway.

The board of aldermen held a brief session last night, owing to its being Washington's birthday. All members were present.

A resolution was adopted protesting against the head police-grab bill before the legislature at Frankfort, and will be forwarded to Senator J. Wheeler Campbell, but the mayor refused to attach his signature, claiming that he is in favor of the bill. No one will be sent to Frankfort to fight the bill.

Supt. A. H. Egan, of the Illinois

Central, was present last night and stated that he had arranged to comply with the city's request to stop incoming Cairo and St. Louis trains at Eleventh and Broadway, beginning Monday, and the board extended him its unanimous thanks.

Bills and accounts against the city were allowed last night, and on account of the doubt as to the propriety of proceeding with the regular business on a national holiday, the board then adjourned until tonight.

It is reported that some of the saloon-keepers who were refused a license at the meeting of the aldermen two weeks ago, will be present tonight to ask reconsideration of the vote, and thus make another effort to secure a license. It is not believed that the vote will be reconsidered.

Completes His First Year.

Rev. G. W. Perryman, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church here, but now pastor of a Knoxville, Tenn., church, has rounded out his first anniversary as pastor there, and writes that during the year his church added 212 members.

KENTUCKY NEWSLETS

Mayfield Preacher Resigns.

Mayfield, Ky., Feb. 23.—Rev. W. T. Logan has resigned as pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at this place, and his resignation has been accepted.

Rev. Logan has been here for over two years. It is understood that he will continue as pastor until July 1st. He came here from Nashville.

Fined $50 Each.

Mayfield, Feb. 23.—Sydney Cooper, Will Smith, James Clark and Frank Wright, who were arrested in Pottsville section for peddling without a license, were fined $50 each before Judge Crossland while the fifth one, William Francis, was allowed to go free. These young men will also have to answer to the charge of breaking into a box car and stealing shoes.

To Count Louisville Ballots.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 23.—All the ballots that were cast in the November election for the entire city ticket will be counted. The boxes will be opened Monday and the canvass begun under the supervision of the canvass judges. This is in accordance with an order entered by agreement of the attorneys on both sides in the election contest cases.

Affirmed $5,000 Verdict.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 23.—Judge Barker delivered an opinion of the court of appeals affirming a judgment of the Muhlenberg circuit court in a case of the Illinois Central Railroad company against Nelson Crane's administrator, Crane, a brakeman, in the employ of the appellant company, was killed at Luzerne mines in January, 1904, by being crushed between cars. His administrator sued for damages and secured judgment for $5,000.

Livingston Notes.

Smithland, Ky., Feb. 23.—The Livingston county board of health, composed of Dr. J. V. Hayden, Dr. D. V. Worton and Dr. F. G. LaRue, met at Salem, Ky., and elected officers for the ensuing term. Dr. J. V. Hayden was elected president and Dr. F. G. LaRue secretary. County Judge J. M. Davis is an appointed member of the board and at the April term of fiscal court another member will be appointed.

Monday morning about 6 o'clock Mr. J. C. Barnett's barn, in the Ledbetter neighborhood, was destroyed by fire. Besides the barn, valued at $600, there was about 800 bushels of corn, six tons of hay, and a lot of gearing burned, making a total loss of about $1,200.

Marriages in Trigg.

Cadiz, Ky., Feb. 23.—Mr. John Rudd Averitt and Miss Azile Futrell, prominent young people of this place, were married here. Mr. Selden Major and Miss Sarah McKinney were the attendants.

Mr. Averitt is senior member of the firm of Lawrence & Averitt, proprietors of the Globe Telephone company at this place.

License was issued for the marriage of Louis C. Willis to Miss Annie Apant, both of near Golden Pond. The wedding will take place Sunday. Mr. Willis is the son of the late Mrs. Bessie Willis.

Hardware Men Elect Officers.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 23.—At the final session of the Kentucky Retail Hardware and Stove Dealers' association Mayor U. S. Shacklett, of Fulton, was elected president for the ensuing year. Paul Wagner was elected first vice-president, and John W. Read, of Hodgenville, second vice-president. John R. Sower, of Frankfort, was re-elected secretary and was voted an increase in salary. A. Stettler, Jr., of Owensboro, was re-elected treasurer. J. S. Ogden, of Ashland, and John R. Sower were elected delegates to the National Retail Hardware Dealers' association, which convenes in Chicago in March. Next meeting in Louisville.

E. Mize, of near Canton, is dead.

Mr. Mize was sixty-one years of age and a native of Tennessee. He came to this county about sixteen years ago and had since engaged in farming in the Rock Castle and Canton precincts. He was married about thirty-five years ago to Miss Bettie Colley, of Canton, daughter of Mr. George Colley, which union was blessed with eight children—five sons and three daughters—all of whom, with their mother, are still living.

Mr. Mize was an old Confederate soldier. He joined the Confederacy in July, 1861, in Tennessee, and was discharged from service in June, 1865. During these four years of hard service he was imprisoned twice and wounded three times from the effects of one of the wounds he lost his left hand at the wrist.

I. C. OFFICIALS

Paid Paducah a Brief Visit Yesterday.

Several I. C. officials were in Paducah yesterday on business. They were Joseph Buker and J. G. Neuffer, assistants to the superintendent of machinery; Supt. Egan and Roadmaster F. L. Thompson, of the Louisville division of the I. C. and J. C. Maus, car agent for the road with headquarters at Chicago.

The party witnessed the test of the tie loading machine, and also went through the shops on an inspection tour. The work in the shops is plentiful, especially in the car repairing department. The force was recently increased in the woodworking department and will likely be increased again within a few weeks.

Daily Thought.
 "Every duty neglected is the loss of something divine."

PUBLIC OFFICE NOT ALWAYS PLEASANT.

Evansville, Ind., is in the throes of a nasty squabble over granting a telephone franchise. Part of the people uphold the mayor and council in granting the franchise and part do not. The imbroglio has clearly demonstrated to the officials, most of whom are reputable business men serving their first terms, that public office is not always a pleasant possession.

Mayor Boehne, in an address before the Business Men's association, which has endorsed the executive and council, took a philosophical view of the "slings and arrows" of opponents of his public acts, and said:

"It should be remembered, however, that we represent no single portion of the interests of this city, nor any one class, but we have been delegated to serve the whole people, and all the interests irrespective of position or occupation; hence it shall always be our motto to be fair and just to all. Whatever our conscience tells us is right, we propose at all times to do; no unfair criticism, or malicious attacks will serve us from doing that which we think is our duty. I assure you the road which the chief executive of our city has to travel is not always strewn with roses and carnations; the only pleasure and consolation I have thus far experienced is the consciousness of having done what I considered my solemn duty, as far as my ability reached. God himself says that all that can be expected of a servant is that he be found true."

This is the way a fearless, manly public servant should feel, talk and act. Men are elected to office to use their best judgment in the interest of the people—not in the interest of any particular class, but in the interest of the whole people.

There will always be found more or less objection to anything that may come before a public board. Usually the antagonists of a move or measure are the only ones who are heard from, and sometimes they make considerably more noise, and create more confusion in the minds of the people's representatives than the merits of the case demand or justify.

If it is a cow ordinance, a saloon license, a new street, a franchise or a hundred other things, somebody, and often many, are found who object to it. A city may go for years without needed utilities, facilities for travel, and other things, with never a move towards providing them at the expense of the people. But let private capital seek an investment and wisecracks will suddenly awake, stretch themselves, and get busy disseminating on tion that it is an effort of the money power to rob the dear people of their sacred rights, and send the community into everlasting corruption and ruin! It is usually safe, however, to follow the lead of the business interests of a town or city. The successful business men, as a rule, have won their spurs for honesty, sagacity and good judgment. They take a pride in upbuilding a city; a larger, more prosperous, more progressive city means more people, more business, more success and prosperity for the successful and prosperous, and they know it. Good business men, as a whole, cannot afford to be for any public measure that does not tend to benefit the city, and when the business interests favor anything, it is impossible for them to expect personal gain at the expense of the people in general, and improbable that their judgment is in error.

Hence, those who would put their judgment above that of such men, should first show by what token a community would be justified in accepting it. Every man has a right to his opinion, but men should have something more than that, before they expect others to accept their opinions as gospel.

They should ask themselves: "Have we made a success of our own business, our own aspirations, our own lives? If we are superior beings, have we anything to show for it? If we have done nothing for ourselves, can we convince others that we can do anything for them? May not others who have succeeded where we have failed, know more than we, after all, and be better advisers of the people?"

And if they are wise men, a true answer to their questions will indicate to them their proper place.

THAT POLICE BILL.

The general council of Paducah obviously has a hard fight on its hands to prevent the Head police bill going through the legislature. The object of this bill is so plain that it should have received no consideration whatever in the legislature. Paducah now has twenty-four men in the police department. Under the Head bill it will have to have thirty-three. This may increase the police expenditures $7,020 a year, and this $7,020 will have to be paid by the taxpayers. The bill was "railroaded" through the house of representatives, doubtless because it was represented to some of the members as without opposition. The press dispatches sent out of Frankfort, when it passed the house stated that Representative Head had told the Democratic members that "it was a party measure," thus insuring their votes, and told the Republicans nothing, hence the Republicans, thinking there was no opposition, voted for it, and the bill received unanimous support.

It will not be so easy in the senate, however. Now that the taxpayers of Paducah understand that the Head police bill may mean $7,020 more a year they will have to pay over to be dumped into the police department, there is likely to be something done.

Even if the bill passes both houses, however, there will still be a chance to secure the governor's veto. It is not believed that Gov. Beckham will lend himself to such a clear case of attempted graft, and that when the situation is fully explained to him, and the real object of the bill exposed, he would not for a moment seriously consider signing it.

It is not clearly shown what the object is of the city solicitor bill pending in the legislature, but it will certainly not be objectionable to some of the politicians of Paducah. The Louisville Herald says in part, of the bill: "Kentucky has four second-class cities—Covington, Newport, Lexington and Paducah. An innocent enough looking little bill has been introduced into the general assembly, proposing that mayors of second-class cities shall appoint their city solicitors. These cities when they need a city solicitor elect one."

McPherson's
 Drug Store

This is the proper way for all cities. The city solicitor, when conscientious, capable and fearless, will act as a check on the mayor and a boss-run council board. He may prove, in fact, one of the principal safeguards of the people.

The talk that comes from Kentucky that certain depredations over there were committed by "Yeggmen" who were quartered in or near Cairo is probably untrue, in so far as Cairo is concerned. Chief Egan says that the eighteen tramps arrested the other night by Officers Cowell, Nichols and Whitecamp were carefully searched by the arresting officers as was also the other squad arrested later; the purpose being to find evidence of crime; but nothing of this kind was found.—Cairo Bulletin. No wonder they didn't find anything if they arrested tramps. The crooks suspected of these safe-brawlings, live at Cairo and probably dress stylishly and are "good fellows."

Human nature is a strange thing. You often find men who have mismanaged their own affairs and made a failure in everything they have ever undertaken in life, and yet who imagine they can run every other man's business better than he can, and who willingly, if allowed to do so, would dictate the policy of city, county, state or nation, and do it with the firm conviction that they were doing better than anyone else could do it.

Forty years ago a curly gray lock was cut from the head of Mr. Sam Lecky, now deceased, and grandfather of Judge J. W. Hocker, and placed between the leaves of the family bible, says the Mayfield Messenger. The hairs were about one inch long at the time. Imagine Judge Hocker's surprise Thursday when he opened the bible and found that the lock of hair had grown until they were fully seven or eight inches long. Judge Hocker's mother cut the hair from the head of the aged gentleman and tied them together and placed them in the bible and the fact of their phenomenal growth is vouched for by her.

NEW DISPATCHER.

Jack Devney to Succeed Mr. Allan Jorgenson.

Mr. Jack Devney, a trick dispatcher on the Nas, old division of the I. C., is announced for promotion to the office of chief dispatcher of the Nashville division to succeed Mr. Allan Jorgenson, resigned.

The announcement was made yesterday by officials who got the tip at Princeton yesterday. Mr. Jorgenson resigned the fore part of the week and his resignation is effective as soon as it is possible to relieve him. It is presumed this will be within a few days as Mr. Devney is now acquainting himself with the work of the chief dispatcher.

Mr. Jorgenson while visiting in Paducah last Sunday stated he was overworked; that the work was too hard for him. He had been called out of bed several nights in succession and the work was telling on him.

Mr. Jorgenson has not stated what he will do, but it is thought he will return to Paducah and engage in the insurance business again.

ARE GREEDILY EYEING CONTINGENT FUND

Mayor Yeiser Says Apportionment Ordinance is Illegal.

Members of Boards, Only Smile and Wonder Why He Signed It, Then.

INTERESTING CITY MATTERS

Mayor D. A. Yeiser says he thinks the apportionment act passed by the council a few weeks ago is illegal, and that he so pointed out when he signed it.

"The charter says the council shall apportion, for each department, as near as possible the amount to be expended in that department, and the council did not do this," he explained today. "Take the appropriation for the electric light plant, $8,000, I believe, was apportioned, when we know it will take more than that. I understand the council has an allowance for it in the contingent fund, but this is not just according to law, as you will see."

That contingent fund is being eyed greedily by the city hall officials. The council, not knowing just what it would need for a good many departments has apportioned $25,000 to that fund, and the city hall crowd seems to think the council has about appropriated all that is needed for the departments and will have a nice little sum to spend for luxuries, and they want to get a chance at it. There is no doubt, seemingly, but they will make frantic efforts to do so, too. They tell you now, when asked where they will get the money for the police if they use up the apportionment, that "it can come out of the contingent fund."

The council, however, has uses for that fund—good uses. In a few weeks it will take up the park question, and start a movement for a park or two, the light-plant will be put in good condition, the other needed permanent improvements such as a concrete bridge for Caldwell street, the island creek bridge, and works of that nature will be taken care of, and there will be no more money than will be needed.

The tax rate will be $1.65, in all probability, and the council hopes to give the city all the improvements it needs, and have probably a little surplus left at the end of the year.

Mayor Yeiser Has Enough of Office.

He so told a Sun representative today.

The congressional bee is buzzing around the bonnets of a number of our distinguished men these warm, spring-like days, as "that is the kind of a bee it is," and it has been whispered that his honor had aspirations for that position.

When asked today, however, if he would be a candidate this year, or any other year, for Ollie James' place, the mayor said: "No, sir, no more offices for me. I am done when I retire from the mayor's office."

When asked what he intends to do then, he replied, "Go to the country and tend my dog kennels."

It is also whispered around, sometimes very loudly, too, that Mayor Yeiser has his eye on some of the county offices, and will stand for one of them when his term is out, but he denied today that he could be induced to run for any office.

The Saloon District.

Ordinances confining the saloons to certain districts will be brought in at an early meeting, as has been announced before. All saloon licenses expire with June and it is proposed to have the ordinances in force by that time.

Want a Down-Town Ticket Office.

The general council of Paducah secured an agreement from the Illinois Central railroad company to stop its incoming trains on the Cairo and over-the-river divisions at Broadway, is after another favor from the railroad company which would be a good thing for the city—the establishment of a down-town ticket office.

It is proposed that the two roads, the Illinois Central and the N. C. & St. L., to establish a joint down-town office, and it is thought the companies will do it. A prominent official of one of these roads is quoted as

CHAINED TO A CORPSE.

Doleful Punishment of the Ancients Duplicated in Our Modern Life.

The Romans used to punish a murderer by chaining to his body the corpse of his victim. Wherever he went he dragged behind him the debris of his crime, the sleazy cadaver, revolting thing that was once a man.

Every day you see people dragging around with them the corpse of their sins. They can't get away from them. And many of them have become so intimate with these corpses that they become corpses themselves. The misery of these poor unfortunates has become constitutional with them. It fits them like an old shoe. They have become accustomed to it.

And there are thousands of humans who are walking the earth today with corpses attached to them,—dyspeptic stomachs they can't get rid of. They have to get along the best they can with the stomachs they have. And the owners of said dyspeptic stomachs are to be found in every walk of life, suffering from some form of indigestion, first cousin to dyspepsia.

They wear that forlorn appearance, their energy is at zero, nothing interests them, and they interest no one, their faces are shrunk, their nerves are wilted and their shoulders sag. Are you one of the myriads who dandle and gratify their palates at the sacrifice of their stomachs? Are you one of those who allow their senses to run riot, eating too much drinking too much, eating at the wrong time, eating the half-cooked, the queer and the impossible?

Are you bloated after eating, and imagine that it is your food that fills you? Do you have nausea when you look upon this or that, rebel at one thing and be hungry for it, too, at the same time? And have you got a whole lot of other things the matter with your stomach that you know about but nobody else does, and can't explain? If so, you have dyspepsia, real dyspepsia. And the chances are you have had it a long time.

Your stomach is overworked, abused, fagged out. The gastric and digestive juices are weak, the muscles of the stomach are jaded, and the whole business needs new life. It needs something which will take hold of the food as it comes in and do the digesting, and let your stomach take a rest.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do that very thing. They contain a most powerful ingredient which helps the stomach in the process of digestion, cures dyspepsia, sour stomach, indigestion, heartburn, eructations, acidity or fermentation. They invigorate the stomach, increase the flow of gastric juice and do two-thirds of what the stomach would have to do without them. That gives the stomach some rest, and a chance to get right again.

You will feel the change first in your mind and heart and then over your whole body. You'll feel rosy and sweet. That's the object. You can get these effective little tablets almost anywhere on earth for 50c a package.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the name.

saying the companies should do it, and if the matter is handled right they could be induced to do so.

NEARING AN END

Is the Brilliant Series of Sermons By Bishop Woodcock.

Another large congregation was present last night at the Grace church mission. Bishop Woodcock's theme was "Salvation," and he handled the subject with his characteristic vigor, depth and breadth of thought. Throughout the sermon he showed conclusively the moral result of "knowing to do and not doing," in the gradual weakening of the will power and the final paralysis of man's highest and God-like attributes.

There is nothing uncertain in the chart Bishop Woodcock places before his hearers for spiritual guidance. The directions for following are plain and to the point, and the "wayfaring man" who errs therein cannot possibly plead failure to understand as the reason. They are the old-time religious paths he blazes out, and no new or bewildering by-paths of startling theories so common today, to lure one aside, or lead astray, but while "the road is straight," it is put before the hearers with a power and vividness that lights the way.

Tonight's sermon will be on "Holy Baptism." There will be only one service tomorrow, that of 9 a. m. While there has been no effort for a class for confirmation at this time, if anyone should indicate a desire to be confirmed Bishop Woodcock will administer the rite on Sunday.

HESHER

—BY—
HAMLIN GARLAND

COPYRIGHT, 1905, BY HAMLIN GARLAND

"A company of mounted police which I have organized to keep order here in the camp. The lookout leaves many men idle, and the local authorities need help to maintain peace and quiet. My force represents the union and its desire to prevent violence in the camp. You are quite safe here under our protection."

"You are very kind," replied Ann. "But aren't you one of those for whom the sheriff comes?"

Munro laughed a silent, boyish laugh. "I believe I am included in his list of notables, but I assure you the honor is quite undeserved."

"This true he kicked Mackay down the hill and put the mouth of his gun to his ear," said Kelly, "but that's a trifle not worth mentioning."

Munro winked. "A mere practical joke."

With the punctilious grace of a dancing master he bowed himself out, swung to his saddle and galloped away.

"When shall we start on our trip?" asked Ann, turning to Raymond.

"I will bring the horses round very soon." As they stepped outside he turned to Kelly and asked in a low voice, "Do you see any objection to this trip to Bozley?"

"Divil a bit. The sheriff will find Jack and his men waitin' for him on the road. He'll get no farther than Sage Hen flat this night. I'm goin' to ride down the hill myself just to know what's goin' on. Go ahead, lad; only don't loiter." The big fellow smiled. "Get back before sunset, whatever ye do."

Raymond resented Munro's call and forced introduction to Ann more deeply than he cared to admit even to Kelly. It hurt him to think that Ann's hand had lain within the clasp of a man to whom women had ever been merely a lower order of life, to be used as playthings.

"And yet I cannot say anything to her," Raymond said to himself. "I can't tell her what his life is. I dare not even hint at it. But I can stop his coming"—and his lips straightened grimly—"and that I will do!"

CHAPTER XIV.

AT 2:30, prompt as a groom, Raymond brought the horses round to the door. Midwinter though it was, the sun was clear and warm, and as they were winding down the trail to the southwest Ann exclaimed over the exquisite quality of the air, the crystalline clarity of the distant peaks and the cloudless serenity of the sky.

After a short and steep descent they came out into a wagon road and were able to ride side by side.

"You must be prepared for very poor goods and very small stores," said Rob. "Bozley is by no means to be compared even with Valley Springs. Everything is temporary. No one really intends to live there; they are all just staying, and I fear the millinery is not of the latest fashion."

"What a power lies in the idea of gold! See the people who have come from all over the world! Don't tell me that every European language is spoken here. Did I see Perry; the Mexican boy, at your cabin this morning?"

"Yes, Perry is here, and so is Baker. You have cause to remember Baker."

When they entered the town Ann said: "Please take me to a shop where I can get some chairs and a small table. I am going to present Mrs. Kelly with an easy chair."

"Very well," said he. "I know the very place, but please do not go about the streets alone. Of course you are perfectly safe, but you are a stranger and might wander into the wrong doors. Wait till I tie the horses and do one or two errands, then I will join you, and we can go where you please."

"Very well," she replied, with a feeling of pleasure in his care of her. "I will wait to visit several shops."

When Raymond returned for Ann, whom he had left at a furniture shop, he was filled with anxiety. The street was full of men drawn together by a report that the sheriff had stolen a march on Skytown and was already on his way to intimidate Bozley and demand those for whom his warrants called. Horsemen were galloping up the hill to warn the miners, and the chief of police and mayor were mingling with the growing throng, pleading for peace. The whole camp resembled a nest of ants into which an ox had planted a hoof.

Ann observed Raymond's abstraction and restlessness and asked, "Are you in haste to return?"

He answered quite calmly: "Yes, we ought to start back as soon as we can. I am going after the horses. Please remain here until I get back."

When Raymond returned the second time he was breathing rapidly. "Some one has borrowed our horses," he explained quietly, "and I must ask you to wait a little longer while I secure another for you."

"Will they not return then?"

"I am afraid not. They have probably gone up the hill to join Munro's men, and they will be returned at the stable. If you are not afraid—"

"Oh, no; I am not afraid!"

He looked at her in admiration. "I don't believe you are scared. Well, now, stay here till I can see what I can do about a horse."

Again Ann stood alone in the doorway, watching a group of men crouching on the flat roof of a two story building opposite. Two of them had rifles in their hands, and some man was shouting from the walk, "Keep them guns out o' sight!"

The girl began to tingle with a foreknowledge of violence. As she listened a wild cry went up from the roof tops, "Here they come!"

The throng below uttered answering shouts. Men began to run to and fro aimlessly, filling the street facing to the south. In the hands of both hands guns began to glitter. Their action was uncoordinated, but their voices shook her, beamed her.

Raymond came hurrying back, his lips set and resolute, his brow frowning with anxiety. "I cannot find a horse that you can ride. I have ordered a team. We will have to go the back way to reach it."

A wilder yell arose. The leaders began to run down the street which led to the south. Ann took hold of Raymond's arm with nervous clutch.

"What are they going to do?"

"It's hard to tell. I wish we were safely out of this."

"Can't we run?"

"Run! Dear girl, you couldn't walk four blocks in this altitude. If you will come with me we will cross to the barn and get our carriage there."

Unconsciously clinging to his arm, Ann went down the back street as in a dream.

They were already too late. The cross street was packed with men, and, looking down the hill, they saw the sheriff and his posse coming six abreast like a squad of cavalry, riding slowly up between the walls of stern and silent citizens of the great camp. Each deputy carried a rifle across the pommel of his saddle, and at their head, preceding even the sheriff, rode Matthew Kelly. His head was bare, and in his hand a long revolver gleamed. There was something in his face, in the lift of his head, that awed men. As he came he called out, not loudly, but every word could be heard:

"Alsy now, boys! Respect the law. Alsy, I say! This is no fight of yours. Down with your guns. There are women and children to think of. Kape the peace!"

Raymond looked at Ann with eyes whose light amazed her. "By the Lord, I wish I were by his side!" He spoke through his set teeth.

"Go!" she said. "Do not mind me. Go help him."

Her voice recalled him. "No, my place is here," and his look meant more than any word he had ever dared to speak to her.

In the square Kelly halted, and the sheriff, throwing up his hand, commanded silence. He was visibly trembling, but he blustered to his purpose. "Where is your mayor and your chief of police?"

The chief stepped forth. "Here I am! What do you want of me?"

"I want you to deliver to me the men who assaulted Mackay."

The chief waved his hand toward the hills. "They are up there; go get them!" and a roar of derisive applause went up.

Kelly raised his hand. "Boys, hear me! This is the sheriff, the properly constituted authority of this county. Be quiet, now, and listen to reason."

The sheriff, gaining courage, took up the theme. "I have no war with Bozley," he said. "I came to get the men who assaulted Mackay and who defied my authority."

"Well, go get them," repeated a man in the crowd. "What are you doing here? You came here to intimidate us!"

GRIP-IT: Heart Like a Clock

The pulsation of the heart marks the passage of the blood through the veins, just as the ticking of a clock indicates the flight of moments of time. Palpitation, fluttering or irregular action reveals the fact that the heart is running down—and unless strengthened, is liable to stop at any time under some weakening influence, such as excitement, over-work, or intense mental or physical strain. To regulate the heart action, you should take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure when any symptoms of a weak heart is apparent. It has no equal.

"Sometime ago I had a very severe pain around my heart, and most of the time I had a heavy beating or throbbing of the heart. It would beat so that when I lay down at night it would sound like a small clock in bed with me. I could count the ticking. With every little exercise, or walking I felt like my heart would give out, and I would be so tired I would have to lie down and rest. I suffered quite a while in this way, then I concluded to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I had not taken it long until I began to feel easier, and so continued, and the medicine entirely cured me. I am very grateful for the great good I received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure."

and you can't do it."

The crowd, moved by some sinister impulse, closed round the sheriff and Kelly, cutting them off from the main body of deputies. This movement opened a way of escape, and, expecting each moment to hear the crackle of guns, Raymond hurried Ann across the street and into the musty waiting room of the livery barn.

"Where is that team?" he shouted to a hostler who was looking out of a side door.

"The boss took it."

"Whose horse is this with the saddle on?"

The hostler looked down for a moment. "Superintendent of Loadstone."

"Maynard's?"

"Yep."

"I thought so. Well, you tell him that Rob Raymond borrowed him for a lady." He turned to Ann. "Come; we must get out of this."

She obeyed like a child, all her imperious nature in subjection to his will. Lifting her to the saddle, he led the horse out the back way and through an alley into the main street and so to the hills. As they reached a fairly level spot in the trail he turned and looked back over the roofs of the houses.

"The sheriff is retreating—wherein he shows good sense." He pointed above them, where on Pine mountain Munro's vedettes stood waiting, backed by a thousand miners, jocular with battle hunger, shouting faint defiance.

"I am sorry to be such a burden to you," said Ann. "I know you longed to be there with Matthew Kelly, and I have forced you to fight."

"I will be honest. I had that impulse. You see, I've been so in the "Boys, hear me! This is the sheriff," habit of mixing in—but it was only a flash, for you were beside me." And then he added, "And you are more to me than any other thing in the world."

"She had no reply to this, no neat turn of phrase, no smile. She looked away in silence, her breath a little troubled, her throat contracted.

In fear of the effect of his words, Raymond hastened to the impersonal.

"If this trouble is turned aside it will be due to Matt."

"Why should they obey him? Is he an officer?"

"Not now, but he was the first marshal of the camp and afterward chief of police. Everybody knows him, and his influence is as great as that of any one man. His presence here today undoubtedly prevented a desperate battle."

As they neared the Kelly cabin Raymond said: "I am deeply chagrined by this experience. I really thought we were going away from disorder."

"Please do not trouble your mind with it any more," she answered decisively. "It was an experience which will give me something new to think about."

Kelly did not return till late. At about 9 o'clock he knocked at Raymond's door. "Get your gun," he said quietly. "We're on guard tonight."

And together they paced to and fro on the hillside, listening to the yells of drunken men up the street and to distant gunshots as the storm of battle swept away to the south of them. By midnight all was silent. The sheriff's forces were either repulsed or captured.

A Wonderful Record.

As made up by improved and exact processes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, taking up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. It cures the backache, periodical headaches, the dragging-down distress in the pelvic region, the pain and tenderness over lower abdominal region, the pelvic catarrhal drain, so disagreeable and weakening, and overcomes every form of weakness incident to the organs distinctly feminine.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which are not afraid to print their formula on the bottle wrapper, thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women, every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners and writers of our day, recommending it for the diseases for which "Favorite Prescription" is used. It is the only put-up medicine for women, through druggists, which does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, so harmful in the long run, especially to delicate women. It has many cures to its credit than all other medicines for women combined, having saved thousands of sufferers from the operating table and the surgeon's knife. It has restored delicate, weak women to strong and vigorous health and virility, making motherhood possible, where there was barrenness before, thereby brightening and making happy many thousands of homes by the advent of little ones to strengthen the marital bonds and add sunshine where gloom and despondency had reigned before.

Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice, in plain, sensible, English, absolutely free. Address him at Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do not gripe. They effectually cleanse the system of accumulated impurities.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, by Dr. Pierce, 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address as above.

Confusion at Newport.

Newport, Ky., Feb. 23.—News leaked out that the major portion of the litigation of the Campbell circuit court transacted between January 1 and February 3, is null and void owing to illegal service of summons and legal papers by one who was not an officer of the court.

The term of office of Sheriff Daniel Riedel expired December 31. The term of his successor, John H. Nagel, began January 1. When Mr. Riedel ceased to be sheriff his deputies, Chris Millus and Chas. Davis, also ceased to hold office. February 2 Commonwealth's Attorney W. A. Burkamp learned that Mr. Davis, the court deputy, had not been sworn in, as rigidly prescribed by the statutes, and that he had been acting as a deputy sheriff or court deputy for more than a month, serving legal papers. Davis was sworn in as soon as the discovery was made.

Croup

Begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough apply frequently Ballard's Snow Liniment to the throat.

PURE FOOD BILL

WAS YESTERDAY PASSED BY THE U. S. SENATE.

Prohibits Misbranding and Adulteration of Drugs and Food of Every Description.

Washington, Feb. 22.—After fifteen years of more or less serious consideration of the subject, the senate yesterday passed the Pure Food bill by a vote of 63 to 4. The vote was taken after a day devoted almost exclusively to a debate of a desultory character on the measure. Several efforts were made to amend the bill and the committee accepted a number of suggestions, but only those thus accepted were incorporated in the bill as passed.

The bill makes it a misdemeanor to manufacture, adulterate or misbrand foods, drugs, medicines or liquors in the District of Columbia, territories and insular possessions of the United States and prohibits the shipment of such goods from one state to another or to a foreign country. It also prohibits the receipt of such goods.

Punishment by a fine of $500 or imprisonment of one year or both, is prescribed. In the case of corporations, officials in charge are made responsible.

The bill also defines foods, drugs, medicines and liquors and also defines standards for them. There is an exemption for dealers who furnish guarantees against adulteration and misbranding.

Health

Means the ability to do a good day's work, without undue fatigue add to find life worth living. You cannot have indigestion or constipation without its upsetting the liver and polluting the blood. Such a condition may be best and quickest relieved by Herbine, the best liver regulator that the world has ever known. Mrs. D. W. Smith writes, April 3, '02: "I use Herbine and find it the best medicine for constipation and regulating the liver I ever used." 50c at Alvey & List and G. C. C. Kolb.

GOOD ATTENDANCE

At the Public Schools Results From Pretty Weather.

The public schools convened this morning after one day holiday, on Washington's birthday. The attendance is excellent, the weather having a tendency to bring out all pupils both large and small. If the weather continues as it has, the attendance the second term will be better than ever before in the history of the schools.

The members of the High school dramatic club are prepared for the entertainment Monday night, when a sketch entitled "Dead Brokers" will be featured. There will be drills and other features—two hours of entertainment. A small admission fee will be charged and the public is assured a high class entertainment.

Itch—Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes April 25, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ring worm and it cured completely. 25c, 50c and $1 at Alvey & List's and G. C. C. Kolb's."

Davis Island Dam, 5.7—1.7 rise.
St. Louis, 11.2—1.2 rise.
Mt. Vernon, 7.6—0.3 rise.
Paducah, 8.0—stand.

The river is on a stand here, the gauge today registering 8 feet. No rise is looked for unless there are some good rains soon. Owing to low water the John A. Wood and W. W. O'Neill, which passed up this week with tows of empties, were unable to get through the canal at Louisville and are tied up at West Louisville until there is a rise.

The ice has passed in the upper Ohio and navigation is now open as far as Wheeling for light draft boats.

The Sprague passed up early this morning with a big tow of empties. There were fifty-six barges in the tow.

The Peters Lee was late in getting in today, and did not arrive until 3 this afternoon. She has a good trip. Reports from the Rees Lee are that she will be a total loss. All the freight is about off now, but the boat seems beyond recovery.

The Kentucky arrived this morning from the Tennessee with a good trip. She gets out again tomorrow.

The Inverness came in from Tennessee river today with a tow of ties for the Ayer & Lord Tie Co., and will leave today for the Cumberland.

The Margaret came out of the Tennessee today with a tow of ties for Ayer & Lord and leaves again tomorrow for the Tennessee.

The Joe Fowler was the Evansville packet today.

The Bald Eagle, of the Leyhe fleet, which has been harboring here all winter, will probably get away for St. Louis tomorrow in command of Capt. "Buck" Leyhe and George Street.

Capt. Eagon does not expect to get away with the government light-house boat Lily for St. Louis, before March 15th.

The first of the Leyhe fleet to leave for St. Louis will be the Bald Eagle, which will depart Saturday and resume her trade out of St. Louis Monday afternoon. It has not been decided when the others will begin to leave.

Judge Joseph Buffington, of the United States District Court at Pittsburg, has ordered the Union Bridge company to pay a fine of $5,000 and the costs of prosecution for its failure to obey the mandate of the Secretary of War to raise the Union Bridge over the Allegheny river to a point high enough to permit navigation. The case has been before the courts for more than a year.

The John A. Wood and tow arrived at Louisville from New Orleans and the W. W. O'Neill and tow are expected. Both will lie up to wait for a rise to go back south.

Towboats will soon be towing shanty boats back from the south that went down in the early fall to spend the winter.

At Franklin and John Douglass were pilots to New Orleans and back on the John A. Wood.

The J. B. Finley was floated off Shawneetown, Ill., Wednesday, after having been aground for several hours. * * * The Wabash arrived Wednesday from Cumberland river with barges laden with lumber, but was compelled to leave one barge aground at Henderson Island, Henderson.

IN showing you today the spring Hat styles we emphasize their exclusiveness, and call attention to their originality. Cultured taste is displayed in this selection. There are many confined styles here, and many more than elsewhere. With young men the Telescope Hat will be the most favored. The new shades, pearl and fawnwood, are shown in all the various dimensions—$2.00 to $4.00. Knox Stiff and Soft Hats are displayed in the spring blocks. The stiff hats in flexible Zuyher weights, making them comfortable in the warmest weather; Stetson Hats are shown in extreme and staple styles; Broadway Special and Imperial Hats in popular college shapes are also here. You can get an idea from our exclusive hat window.

President Friedman Will Tonight Announce His Permanent Committees

The directors of the Commercial club will meet tonight at 7:30. President Joseph L. Friedman will announce his permanent committees, and several important business matters will come up for action.

The club will take up the silver service for the gunboat Paducah matter, and President Friedman will probably appoint a purchasing committee to get prices and attend to the details of purchasing the service.

It is proposed to raise $1,500. The club has raised $500, the city will give $500 and another $500 will be raised.

The buggy given the Commercial club by the Hardy Buggy Co., will be raffled off tonight at the club, and the winner announced tomorrow. A good sum has been realized from the sale of tickets for the drawing. The club is today mailing out over 2,000 pieces of advertising matter, and is working on a good batch of other literature to go out very soon.

CONGRESSMAN JAMES

Knocked Out the $2,700 Appropriation for Knox's Portrait.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Representative Ollie James yesterday delivered a knockout blow to the proposition to pay $2,700 for a picture of Senator (former Attorney General) Knox, to be placed in the department of justice. James made an objection which caused the provision to be stricken out of the general deficiency bill by the house. The senate conferees have been trying to have it restored.

James today saw Representatives Tawney, Littauer and Livingstone, the house conferees, and notified them that he will attack the conference report when it comes up in the house if it contains the objectionable item. The house conferees notified the senate conferees, and the item was dropped.

ALMOST A TRAGEDY.

Crazy Negro in Cadiz Jail Runs Amuck With a Knife.

Cadiz, Ky., Feb. 23.—Rich Jones, the negro given ten years in the penitentiary at the recent term of the Trigg circuit court for attempting criminal assault upon a little negro girl near Linton, and still in jail here awaiting the action of his attorneys in an appeal, became enraged and made an attack upon his fellow prisoners with a knife. He first attacked J. M. Burgess, white, and but for the timely assistance of Wash. Gaither, colored, he would doubtless have killed Burgess. He cut Burgess with a knife, cutting the waistband of his trousers about three inches, the knife going through all his clothes. Gaither came to the assistance of Burgess, whereupon Jones turned on him and inflicted a bad gash across the right side of his head several inches long and to the bone. Burgess and Gaither succeeded in knocking him down and dragging him into a cell and closing the door on him.

Jones would not give up the knife and a rope was put through the bars into his cell and he was caught around the feet and held while some one went in and secured the knife from him after which he was placed in one of the down-stairs cells.

Jones has been crazy or playing crazy for some time, and was tried a few weeks ago as to his sanity, and upon the testimony of all the doctors of the town, was adjudged of sound mind.

It is a mystery to Jailer Timmons and the prisoners as to where Jones got the knife.

I. O. O. F. Lodge Growing.

Last night the I. O. O. F., Mungum lodge, initiated five candidates and received the applications from seven others who desire to come in. The I. O. O. F. is rapidly growing and another lodge will shortly be installed in Mechanicsburg. When the annual interstate meeting is held in Paducah, April 26th, the lodge will boast of one of the largest membership lists of any lodge in the city.

True love does not demand, it devotes; it does not absorb from another, it pours out of its own rich stores to that other.
